

Devolution

I had never heard of the word “devolution,” and was somewhat proud of myself for inventing it until spellchecker didn’t flag it (OK, that’s one for her, but I knew how to spell “Ecclesiastes” long before she did!). Turns out it is already a real word and, at least generally, means pretty much what you think it means- the opposite of “evolution” and progressive changes... so digressive changes.

- We’ve had two well-defined and easily-recognized genders in the human species since its creation, but lately seem to be “devolving” into hundreds of them at an alarming rate, Matt.19:4; cf. Gen.1:27 (which is completely contradictory to the “evolutionary” model by the way!).
- And while we’re on the devolution/evolution vein, we once generally accepted that “In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth,” Gen.1:1. But with years of evolutionary theory being pushed and propagated as “fact,” we have devolved into atheism, naturalism, and every other kind of “ism” and all their related effects and consequences, cf. Rom.1:18-23.
- We once learned from and agreed with Dr. King (despite previous epic failures) that people should be judged by the content of their character instead of the color of their skin, but have more recently devolved back into less noble standards. Gal.3:26-29.
- We once understood the value of history- including if not especially so regarding negative history, that we could learn from our mistakes, but have more recently devolved into a “cancel culture” which wishes to purge/expunge the record... thus dooming us to repeating past atrocities. Acts 7 and Heb.3:7 – 4:2.
- We once worshiped and served our Creator simply but purely “in spirit and truth,” John 4:23-24. Saints could gather anywhere to sing, pray, commune, and study His word with nothing more than the Word of God to guide them. Now we have devolved “worship” into a pageantry of paganism that would rival Canaanite kingdoms. It’s no longer pure, simple, or even “worship.”

And why has all of this “devolution” occurred? There are likely several reasons, but one seems paramount: Man decided that he created “God” instead of acknowledging and accepting that God created man. Such made man his own “god” and relegated God to a figment only of the so-called “weak-minded.” While other factors surely contributed to this conclusion, this was the “Big Bang” of devolution... and surely the beginning of man’s undoing and devolution to ultimate destruction. But “let God be found true, though every man be found a liar...” Rom.3:4. God is true. Men who claim otherwise ARE liars. The truth was revealed through the prophet Jeremiah long ago, “a man’s way is not in himself; nor is it in a man who walks to direct his own steps,” Jer.10:23. It still isn’t, and until we admit as much, “devolution” will continue to its disastrous end. (Philip C.
